Enter the title for the video

The screenshot shows the 'Create a File in "ASSIGNMENTS"' section. The title 'Computers' is entered in the text box, and a red arrow points to it. Below the text box is a toolbar with various icons, including a play button icon which is circled in red. The toolbar also includes options for 'Paragra', 'B', 'I', 'U', 'Font Fa', 'Size', and other formatting tools. Below the toolbar is an 'Insert Stuff' button.

Obsolete Computers
(Video) From Title: Communities as Classrooms
Instructor Mr. Palacios explains that the school's computers, hardware, and software are outdated. Multiple students have to gather around one computer. New computers are needed to be proficient in the classroom.

"Thinking" Computers
(Video) From Title: Modern Marvels: Computers
In 1997, IBM's Deep Blue computer beat reigning chess champion Garry Kasparov and signaled a sign of intelligent machines to come. Computers capable of cognitive thought thrill some and terrify others.
